

Nomination Form
For
PENN STATE ABINGTON CAMPUS
2006 OUTSTANDING TEACHING AWARD
(Instructors and Lecturers)

Purpose: This award recognizes a faculty member with an appointment as an instructor or lecturer for excellent and effective teaching. (See reverse for eligible faculty.)

Guidelines for Selection: The excellent and effective teaching of the nominee may be demonstrated by, but is not limited to, the following:

- communicates effectively,
- motivates and inspires to learn,
- organizes course materials and content well,
- gives lucid presentations,
- demonstrates a command of the subject area,
- shows enthusiasm for the subject,
- synthesizes material well,
- shows creativity in instructional materials,
- demonstrates good rapport with students,
- is an effective role model for students,
- facilitates and encourages stimulating class discussion and/or activities,
- uses humor effectively,
- uses audiovisual, computer, or multi-media equipment effectively,
- incorporates recent research into classroom discussion and/or activities.

Name of Nominee _____

Must give detailed written explanation (below) for nomination. Sign your name, and submit form to Mrs. Geiger, Room 119 Sutherland, by 4 p.m. Friday, February 17, 2006.

Your name _____ Your signature _____

Relationship to nominee _____